

WEINBERG ON THE LAW

Attorney Scott Weinberg connects with politicians, lawyers, journalists, and local leaders with his one-of-a-kind radio show.

What happens if your 16-year-old son is accused of rape for having sex with his 15-year-old girlfriend?

What can you learn about estate planning from Michael Jackson and Frank Sinatra?

Are you creating a potential break-in risk with your Facebook posts?

Learn the answers to these tantalizing subjects and more every week on Scott Weinberg's legal radio show, Weinberg on the Law, a production of CBS Radio's WXYT 1270 AM.

WEINBERG ON THE LAW AIRS SUNDAYS FROM 9-10 A.M.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BUILDING A COMMUNITY OF LAW

“Today, practicing law is not just about court cases,” says Weinberg, a 23-year veteran in the local legal sector, having practiced on both sides of the bench, as prosecutor and now defense attorney, in his career. “You have to create relationships with, and learn from, other lawyers, judges, politicians, journalists and local leaders so that you can be at the top of your game.”

Weinberg is an energetic radio show host, with famed guests that include:

- WDIV Channel 4 crime reporter and author Paula Tutman
 - Celebrated attorney Geoffrey Fieger
 - Michigan Gubernatorial Candidates
 - Renowned Politician L. Brooks Patterson
 - Wayne County Prosecutor Kym Worthy
 - NPR Journalist Celeste Headlee
- ...And dozens of others*

“In two decades of practicing law, I’ve seen and heard just about everything,” says Weinberg, who is managing partner of the Weinberg Law Firm in Franklin. The firm defends clients throughout the state of Michigan. “It’s an honor to be able to offer what I’ve learned to keep others safe and out of jail.”

Weinberg manages a dozen attorneys in defending clients on a variety of criminal offenses. Before he founded Michigan Criminal Lawyers PC in 1997 (which now operates under the name Weinberg Law), he worked with noted lawyer Bill Bufalino for 10 years. Before that, he was a sex crimes prosecutor in Macomb County.

Scott Weinberg has been an expert guest commentator on Court TV, WWJ and WXYT radio for noted cases including People v. Dr. Jack Kevorkian, the Jenny Jones murder case, People v. Donald Debolt and People v. Watts. He is also a regular radio guest on Court TV, Tru TV, CBS Radio, Fox News, WWJ and WXYT radio.

Weinberg is a graduate of University of Michigan and University of Detroit School of Law and a member of the Michigan and Illinois State Bar Associations.
